Jax has never forgotten Ava. Not even after all these years. When he gets her call, he's torn between wanting to help her and wanting to tell her to go to hell. But he can't leave her stranded, so he reluctantly agrees to come and get her.

When they're reunited, the chemistry between them is still as undeniable as it ever was. But there's also a lot of hurt and anger that needs to be addressed. Ava left Jax without an explanation, and he's never been able to forgive her for it. Ava, on the other hand, has been carrying around a lot of guilt for what she did. She knows she hurt Jax, and she's not sure if he'll ever be able to forgive her.

Despite their past, Ava and Jax can't deny the fact that they still love each other. But can they overcome their hurt and anger to give their love another chance? Or is their past too much to overcome?
