Legal Requirements

Before you can get married on Marigold Island, you will need to obtain a marriage license from the Lee County Clerk of Court. You can apply for a marriage license online or in person. The following documents are required to apply for a marriage license:

- Proof of identity (driver's license, passport, etc.)
- Social Security number
- $93.00 fee

Once you have obtained your marriage license, it is valid for 60 days. You must perform your wedding ceremony within this time frame.

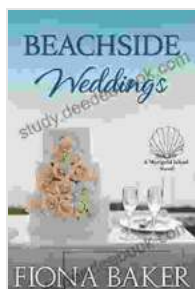

Weather Considerations

Marigold Island has a subtropical climate, with warm temperatures year-round. However, it is important to be aware of the potential for rain and storms, especially during the summer months. If you are planning an outdoor wedding, be sure to have a backup plan in case of inclement weather.

Here are a few tips for planning a beachside wedding in any weather:

- Choose a venue with indoor and outdoor options. This will give you the flexibility to move your ceremony or reception inside if the weather turns bad.
- Have a backup plan. In case of rain, have a tent or other shelter available to keep your guests dry.
- Be flexible. If the weather does not cooperate, be willing to make changes to your plans. Your guests will understand and appreciate your efforts to make the best of the situation.

Planning a beachside wedding on Marigold Island can be a dream come true. With its beautiful beaches, stunning venues, and experienced vendors, Marigold Island offers everything you need to create the perfect wedding day. By following the tips in this guide, you can ensure that your wedding is everything you have ever imagined and more.
